

STUDENTS and PARENTS, in preparation for each child's page in the yearbook, each student is asked to submit a writing piece that will be representing them in the Munsey Park School yearbook.

Please use the following outline of what is needed in your writing piece:

Introductory paragraph: Specific details and memories that made Munsey Park School special and feel like home. What are some things about Munsey Park that are comforting to you? Tell about some of the relationships (with teachers/staff) or friendships you have made throughout your journey at Munsey Park.

Second paragraph: With the adventure of Middle School waiting, tell us some things you are looking forward to in Middle School. Tell us some things you will miss about Munsey Park.

Third paragraph: You need a combination of courage, compassion and wisdom to set your future goals. What is something you will strive to do in the future? What are some of your dreams, aspirations or goals?

The following are some examples of paragraph ideas/starters that the children can use to begin each of their paragraphs:
