

Did you know our students...

85% of the Manhasset Class of 2012 scored at least an 85% (mastery) on the Algebra Regents which was highest among school districts in Nassau County where the average mastery rate on the Algebra Regents was 33.6%.

68% of the Manhasset Class of 2012 scored at least an 85% (mastery) on the Geometry Regents which was second highest among school districts in Nassau County where the average mastery rate on the Geometry Regents was 35.4%.

58% of the Manhasset Class of 2012 scored at least an 85% (mastery) on the Trigonometry Regents which was the second highest among school districts in Nassau County where the average mastery rate on the Trigonometry Regents was 32.2%.

The 87% Regents Diploma with Advanced Designation rate of Manhasset Class of 2012 was the second highest among school districts on Long Island where the average advanced diploma rate was 51.9% and in Nassau County, 56.4%.

88% of graduates from the classes of '10, '11, and '12, who are enrolled in four year colleges, are enrolled in schools listed in Princeton Review's The Best 376 Colleges.

Received regional and national recognition for their science research projects (Manhasset HS science students):

- One Intel Science Talent Search Semi-finalist
- Four 1st place, five 2nd place, two 3rd place and six Honorable Mention awards at the LI Science and Engineering Fair
- 5 students qualified to compete at the 6th Annual International ISWEEP Olympiad in Houston, Texas in May.
- 5 Students qualify to go on to the INTEL International ISEF Competition in Phoenix, Arizona in May.
- Four 1st place, four 2nd place and two 3rd place awards at the Long Island Science and Engineering Junior Varsity Fair
- Best in Fair, two 1st, four 2nd place and two Honorable Mention Awards at the NYS Science and Engineering Fair
- Two 1st place, two 2nd place, and two 3rd place awards at the Long island Science and Engineering Middle School Fair
- Three finalists at the Junior Science and Humanities Symposium
- Two 1st place awards at the Dowling College Science Fair and the Young Scientist Award (top freshman project)
- Three Regional Ricoh Sustainable Development Awards
- Two 3rd place and two 5th place awards at the LI Regional Science Olympiad

- 100% of the 1,683 students in grades K-6 participated in Music and Art in 2011-12.
- 87%, or 494 of 571 students in grades 7 & 8 participated in Music, Visual Art or Theatre in 2011-12.
- 75%, or 698 of 937 students in grades 9-12 participated in Music, Visual Art or Theatre rate in 2011-12.
- 90% of the District's K-12 enrollment of 3,191 students, 2,875 students participated in Music, Visual Art or Theatre in 2011-12.

78% of Manhasset's Middle School students (grades 7-8) participate in Interscholastic Athletics.

74% of Manhasset's High School students (grades 9-12) participate in Interscholastic Athletics.

Overall, 75% of Manhasset's student population (grades 7-12) participates in Interscholastic Athletics.

In 2012, the average SAT Critical Reading score of Manhasset seniors (591) was well above the average score earned by students in New York State (483) as well as nationally (496).

In 2012, the average SAT Math score of Manhasset seniors (637) was well above the average score earned by students in New York State (500) as well as nationally (514).

In 2012, the average SAT Writing score of Manhasset seniors (612) was well above the average score earned by students in New York State (475) as well as nationally (488).

In 1999 the number of AP tests administered in Manhasset High School totaled 399 resulting in a 63.7% passing rate—as compared with 2012 when 1,119 AP exams were administered with an 82% passing rate. Manhasset's 82% passing rate can be compared with the nationwide passing rate of 58.2%.

Budget Facts:

Manhasset's average budget and levy increases over the last five years are lower than the average for all school districts in Nassau County.

For 5 consecutive years, from 2009-10 through 2013-14, Manhasset's average levy to levy increase of 2.55% remains consistently and significantly below the Nassau County average for school districts. For 5 consecutive years, from 2009-10 through 2013-14, Manhasset's average budget to budget increase of 2.13% remained consistently below the Nassau County average for school districts.

Munsey Park and Shelter Rock remain two of the largest enrolled elementary schools on Long Island. The Secondary School continues to experience increased enrollment during the 2013-14 school year and enrollment is projected to increase at the secondary level through the 2015-16 school year. With significant enrollment at the elementary schools and growing enrollment at the secondary school, over a period of five years, 2009-10 through 2013-14, our budget increased an average of 2.13% a year, consistently below the Nassau County average for school districts.

In the last five years from 2009-10 through the 13-14 budget, Manhasset has added 1.59 full-time equivalent employees, while at the same time, enrollment has grown by over 200 students

Manhasset has the lowest school tax rate in Nassau County.

In 2005-2006 (the year Superintendent Cardillo arrived in Manhasset), Manhasset's costs per pupil ranked 3rd in Nassau County. For the 2011-2012 school year, Manhasset ranked 17th in costs per pupil in Nassau County.